We ♥ Local

ShopRite is proud to work with local family farms and businesses because local is not only how we source our food - it's who we are.

Each ShopRite is family owned - by families that live and work in the communities they serve. So when we say we support locally owned farms as a family business, we mean it. We've supported local family farms for over 50 years!

Buying local helps support the local economy, reduces the environmental impact and transportation costs, and guarantees you the freshest food.
